

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Nona Palıncaş and Ana Cristina Martins
Part I Looking for Sources of Inspiration
2	Sex and Gender: Watch Your Language! A View from the North	17
	Liv Helga Dommasnes
3	Binary or Non-binary? Binary and Non-binary? None? Looking at Gender Expressions in the Egyptian Divine World	35
	Guilherme Borges Pires
Part II Does the Study of Gender Change Archaeology?
4	‘Patriarchs’ and ‘Ladies of Power’: Gender and Social Transformation in Early Peasant Societies in Western Iberia	71
	J. C. Senna-Martinez and Elsa Luís
5	Gender Relations in the Production and Consumption of Portuguese Pottery (Sixteenth to Eighteenth Centuries)	89
	Tânia Manuel Casimiro
6	Works and Femininities in the Late Bronze and Early Iron Age in the Lower Danube (c. 1350–800 BC)	103
	Nona Palıncaş
7	Now You See It, Now You Don’t: Gender and Identity in a Danish Viking Age Hoard Horizon	137
	Bo Jensen

8	Gender, Change and Identity: Is Gender the Most Important Aspect of a Person's Identity or Is It Just One of Many?	161
	Susanne Moraw
Part III Does the Study of Gender Change Archaeologists?
9	Women and Archaeological Collecting in Portugal (1893–1930)	187
	Elisabete Pereira
10	Gender Divergence and Convergence in Portuguese Archaeology	201
	Jacinta Bugalhão
11	Women in Archaeology in Portugal: Historiography, the Case of Costa Arthur and Some Reflections	219
	Ana Cristina Martins
12	Let's Talk About Money: Third-Party Funds and Archaeological Gender Research in Germany	251
	Julia Katharina Koch
13	Figaro's Bliss: Changing Theories and Practices – Reflections on Their Effects on Everyday Work, Equality, and Careers in Academia and Other Archaeological Organizations	271
	Tove Hjørungdal
Part IV Does Gender Archaeology Change Other Disciplines?
14	From Theory to Praxis: Why Gender Matters to Archaeology (and the Other Way Around)	287
	Francisco B. Gomes
15	Food Consumption of Females and Males from the Archaeological Site of Larina-Le Mollard: An Exploratory Study (France, Sixth to Eighth Centuries)	303
	Luana Batista-Goulart and Isabelle Séguy
Part V Does Gender Archaeology Change Wider Society?
16	'It's a Long Way!' The Gender Perspective in Archaeology Museums	325
	Lourdes Prados Torreira
17	Always the Same Old Stories? The Representation of Prehistoric Women and Men in Scientific Communication, Popular Culture and the Media	343
	Jana Esther Fries
	Index	367